

PRICE LIST FOR CLINIC SERVICES

*routine dog spay or neuter $50 less than 80 pounds $100 over 80 pounds (at the discretion of the veterinarian)	Pets must weigh at least 2 pounds.
*routine cat spay or neuter $20	Pets must weigh at least 2 pounds.
*Non-routine spay/neuter procedures range from $50 to $250 contingent upon sex, age, species, and surgical complications.

HeartSmart Packages

Each package includes a heartworm test and choice of 6 or 12 months of preventative.

Package	6 month price	12 month price
Mini-dog under 25 pounds	$50	$80
Midi-dog 25 to 50 pounds	$55	$90
Maxi-dog 51 to 100 pounds	$60	$100
Mega-dog Over 100 pounds	$95	$150

Vaccine and Microchip Packages

K9 Kit-n-Kaboodle includes rabies, DA2PP respiratory complex, and microchip (add bordetella for $5 more!)	$35 A dog-gone great deal! $40
Feline Kitten Kaboodle includes rabies, RCP respiratory complex, and microchip	$35 A purrr-fectly fabulous bargain!

Individual vaccines for dogs and cats

RCP respiratory complex for cats	$11	Puppies and kittens in their 1 st year need a series of 3 vaccines given every 3 to 4 weeks from 6 to 12 weeks of age.
DA2PP distemper/parvo complex for dogs	$14
Bordetella vaccine for dogs	$9
Rabies 1 year vaccine for cats and dogs	$7

microchip	$20 Includes registration! What a deal!
euthanasia services	$50 for low income-qualified clients $80 for the general public

The Albuquerque Heart Ordinance requires that all pets be sterilized, vaccinated against rabies, licensed, and microchipped. In compliance with the Heart Ordinance, all patients receiving veterinary care in the Animal Humane clinic will be sterilized.