

Kim Snitker, Program Manager

Kim Snitker joined Animal Humane's team in December 2010. The original owner of the popular Albuquerque pet store, "The Three Dog Bakery," she became well-known to animal lovers and advocates alike, participating in and creating several successful animal outreach programs such as The Mayor's Dog Ball, DogFest and Hooters for Neuters. As a Program Manager with Animal Humane, her primary responsibilities are the spay/neuter outreach activities, the Spay New Mexico project, as well as the New Mexico Humane Conference, Maddie's

Fund and the Warm Hearts Network pet therapy program. Originally from the Kansas City area, Kim holds a B.F.A. from Columbus College of Art & Design in Ohio, a masters of arts from New Mexico State University and masters studies in set design at DePaul University in Chicago. She lives in Albuquerque with her husband, daughter and dogs, Maddie and Larry.

