

Armando Vargas, Animal Care Supervisor

Armando Vargas joined the Animal Humane family back in April of 2006, and is one of two animal care supervisors. When he is not at the shelter he loves to spend time with his family consisting of a wife, two daughters, a son and a cat. Armando enjoys the tremendous amount of job satisfaction here at our organization, "it's a great feeling knowing we are helping homeless animals".

