Fiscal Year 2016

A PET'S JOURNEY

The Year in Review

We have much to celebrate over our last fiscal year — beginning with the momentous occasion of reaching our 50th Anniversary. On September 1, 2015, Animal Humane celebrated the vision our founders put in place at their dinette table decades ago. This progressive and passionate pair, Colonel Edmund and Thelma Evans, launched vital programs that continue to serve homeless pets and pet owners in our community today. It's astounding that their clarity led them to establishing the foundation of our shelter that has become a pillar in our community and throughout New Mexico.

This past year we also gave a glorious farewell to another remarkable leader, Peggy Weigle. In the fall of 2006, Peggy took her years of kennel management, nonprofit prowess and business acumen and focused her sights on bringing our shelter to the place where we stand today. She built programs and a team to lead them — as well as improved every square inch of our 4+ acre Main Campus that serves thousands of homeless pets and owners annually. And when we wished her a wonderful retirement in February 2016, it was a moment filled with gratitude for her years of service and the countless lives she saved.

In May 2016, we embarked on a new frontier with plans that will expand opportunities for dog owners to build stronger bonds with their pets, along with adding new services that will help us sustain the comprehensive programs that serve our community and state. Now our southeast Albuquerque property is 6+ acres on two sides of Virginia Street. The development of this parcel and three existing buildings, known as The Center at Animal Humane, will lead our shelter into the next half century of our existence.

In the remaining pages of our Fiscal Year 2016 Annual Report we will share accomplishments that our Team and you, our precious donors, made possible. To every single contributor — whether your gift be lemonade stand revenue, monthly donations, a valuable grant or bequest — your contributions allow us to continue the work set in motion in 1965, as well as launch new initiatives that will ensure our foundation remains strong for the pets and people who rely on Animal Humane.

Our Salute to Peggy Weigle

Next to our founders, Peggy Weigle will forever be known as a transformational leader of Animal Humane New Mexico.

Peggy's passion for animals began at an early age. She was surrounded by dogs and barn cats as a child. From there, under the tutelage of a dear friend, she learned to raise, train and show champion Whippets. This led to a Professional Show Dog Handler and Kennel Manager career and several other successful adventures. When Peggy took the helm of Animal Humane in 2006, she had come full circle in her career.

From day one, her decisions dramatically altered our shelter and the services we provided our pets, community and state. She initially focused her time and attention on upgrading our facilities at 615 Virginia and building relationships with passionate donors who had supported our work for decades — as well as new friends to our organization.

Peggy's vast research and newfound friendships with animal welfare experts throughout the nation led to the addition of numerous programs that developed a comprehensive circle of care throughout her tenure — all the while improving the housing and support we provided our pets.

One of her most significant contributions was conceiving and tirelessly leading our campus-wide renovations and the successful conclusion of our shelter's largest construction and capital campaign in our 50 year history. This massive project that was hatched, launched and implemented under her leadership was an enormous added responsibility that she bore with grace and excelled at guiding.

Her vision and ultimate crescendo led to our state-of-the-art campus that provides comforting and healing housing for pets in our care — while creating a welcoming place that has redefined people's impression of what a shelter can and should be.

From day one, Peggy strived to put Animal Humane New Mexico on the map as one of the best shelters in our country... a leader that others looked to for expertise... with a team holding diverse talents that allowed us to respond to the needs of pets and owners in our community. Peggy far exceeded her goal and now, Animal Humane will continue to harbor, save and transform lives in honor of her extraordinary work for decades to come.

Volunteers Are Our Foundation

At Animal Humane, our cherished volunteers, past and present, are part of our core family who selflessly give their time in exchange for simply the love and appreciation of each pet they serve and the celebrated gratitude of our entire staff. Without question, we cannot accomplish our mission without them!

In Fiscal Year 2016:

456 volunteers donated 44,588 hours of their life-saving time. This equals 21 full-time employees. ## Feline Ringworm Ward Serves 100th patient

Feline Ringworm is a highly contagious fungal infection affecting the skin, hair and nails. Treatment takes 12 weeks and requires isolation while topical and oral medication is applied. Before we had a dedicated Feline Ringworm Ward, cats and kittens with the infection had to be euthanized. Without the proper facilities to quarantine patients during the lengthy treatment, the risk of infection to healthy pets and people was too high.

Thanks to a generous donation from Sandy Gold, our shelter built and opened our first-ever Feline Ringworm Ward in June 2014. Our dedicated team not only treats cats and kittens here, they also keep their patients happy with lots of love, play time and interaction to ready them for adoption as soon as their treatment concludes.

Our 100th Feline Ringworm Ward patient was Cinder, a sweet one-year-old muted Tortoiseshell who had been transferred to us from Rio Rancho Animal Control.

After she was released from treatment, Cinder was ready to go home with her adoptive mom, Hannah Bailey. Cinder is thriving in her new home. Hannah says, "She's the perfect fit for our family!"

While the work inside of our Feline Ringworm Ward is done entirely behind the scenes, this special area will continue impacting the lives of cats, kittens and their very thankful families.

Fiscal Year 2016 Financials

Animal Humane New Mexico is a private 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that receives no city, state or federal funding. Therefore, we earn or raise 100% of our operating budget. In Fiscal Year 2016, our shelter generated earned revenue from three main sources: 1) Fees from Adoption & Training Classes; 2) Fees from services performed in our Donor-subsidized Veterinary Clinic for low-income pet owners; and (3) Revenue from our Thrift Shop, Main Campus Animal Outfitters pet supply store & Westside Adoption Center Mercantile. Our remaining revenue was raised through private contributions from passionate pet-loving individuals, generous gifts and grants from corporations & foundations, and estate gifts. Every donation is highly valued and used judiciously to operate our comprehensive programs and services that have met the needs of homeless pets and pet owners for more than five decades.

Learning and Growing Together, One Pet at a Time

When a shelter resident needs extra assistance to blossom and put their best paw forward, our Behavior Team steps in to provide the training and positive reinforcement they need. Fractious cats like Malcolm are gently taught to associate humans with love and nourishment, are given extra socialization time with Team members, and cuddled by our dedicated volunteers. Introverted dogs like Dillinger are guided to become more comfortable around strangers and helped to develop better social skills.

In addition to the behavior modification and basic manners instruction provided to the homeless pets in our care, our Behavior Team assists owned pets throughout the community. Pets and their humans are given expert instruction via private and group training, and we provide pet parents with behavior concerns advice and support through our free Behavior Helpline.

Behavior Team

- Increased the adoptability of our shelter pets by providing 268 behavior evaluations and 72 pets with Behavior Modification training.
- Provided ongoing enrichment for each of the 4,000+ cats & dogs in our care.
- Helped owned pets remain in their homes by providing 187 training classes to 1,217 pet parents and teaching at 5 seminars attended by 136 attendees.
- Provided expert assistance through 1,108 free behavior consults.

Fostering Happy Endings for Precious Pets

Our Foster Care program blends the skill and knowledge of our expert Team members with the dedication and talent of over 170 volunteer Foster Families. The result couldn't be more life-changing: over 1,100 of our shelter's most at-risk pets were lovingly cared for in Fiscal Year 2016, and are now thriving in homes of their own. This group includes pets recovering from surgery, bottle babies and unwell cats and dogs who needed special care before they could be adopted.

Pets like Minerva, who along with three siblings arrived as a baby weighing only 0.25 pound. Minerva required treatment for an upper respiratory infection and had to be fed every two hours to survive. Luckily, she received excellent care in our Donor-subsidized Veterinary Clinic and was fostered along with her littermates by a foster parent with a background and training in veterinary medicine. The little Tabby was also helped by an indomitable will to live, and bravely battled the infection for over a month while fighting to put on sufficient weight. Minerva's health remained poor in the weeks that followed, and at one point it was even feared she might have internal parasites because her belly became abnormally enlarged. But Minerva was not alone; her foster parent was there to faithfully nurse her past every challenge with love and compassion.

In time and with excellent care, Minerva won each of these battles, and arrived back at our Clinic as a healthy 3-month-old kitten to be spayed and readied for adoption. Just five days later, Minerva found her new loving home — along with Buster, a gray Tabby and fellow shelter resident — with a kind adopter.

Minerva beat the odds and is now a healthy, happy 1-year-old. From the comfort of her home and surrounded by love, Minerva and her doting mother send their most profound gratitude to our Clinic and Foster Care Teams.

Foster Care Program

- 174 Foster Families opened their hearts and homes to 1,109 pets.
- This includes 620 kittens, 409 puppies, 31 cats and 49 dogs.
- Of these, 120 were nursing litters and 718 were undersized kittens and puppies.

Making a Difference for Homeless Pets on the Westside

Our Westside Adoption Center (WAC), located at 10141 Coors Blvd. NW, opened on March 12, 2016 to a wonderful reception by area residents. With the support of 30 dog walkers, cat cuddlers and front desk volunteers, our dedicated staff set a blistering pace for adoptions, placing an average of 66 pets into loving homes monthly. By the close of our fiscal year just 3½ months later, our WAC Team had found new homes for an amazing 265 dogs and cats and generated nearly $30,000 in revenue to support our life-saving work!

Flash was transferred to our care from Albuquerque Animal Welfare Department's (AWD) Shy Cat program. Advised by AWD that Flash had a difficult time adjusting to change, our Team proceeded slowly with socialization activities to earn his trust. In just a month, the brown Tabby's confidence grew and caught the eye of his future adopter.

Cub, a stray 4-year-old Pit Bull mix, was brought in by a good Samaritan. Cub had been a long-time resident at our Main Campus, having spent 164 days in our care. During his stay, Cub donated blood to another resident in medical need, Dinero, saving his life! Cub was adopted during our WAC Grand Opening event, and joyfully went home to join two other Animal Humane adoptees.

Calven came to us as a stray and was emotionally shut down and very shy. His time living outdoors had left the 2-year-old with a few scars, but he still trusted people and was friendly with other cats. Following his placement in WAC's smartly designed cat room, Calven came out of his shell and was adopted less than a month after his arrival.

Westside Adoption Center (March 12 - June 30, 2016)

- Adopted out a total of 265 pets, including 113 dogs, 86 puppies, 39 cats and 27 kittens.
- Average length of stay was 4.8 days for dogs, .8 days for puppies, 7.1 days for cats and 1.9 days for kittens.

More Than a Thrift Shop

From humble beginnings in the 1980s as Gift "n" Thrift at our Main Campus to its current 6,000 square-foot location at 4646 Menaul Blvd. NE, our Thrift Shop has come to play an increasingly central role in Animal Humane's overall strength and stability. Because we receive no city, state or federal funding, it is incumbent upon our organization to earn or raise 100% of the revenue necessary to sustain our life-saving work. In Fiscal Year 2016, our Thrift Shop generated gross revenue in excess of $800,000, representing 13% of our total operating budget.

Key to our Thrift Shop's continued success has been the dedication of our amazing staff and volunteers, as well as the generosity of pet lovers who have shown their support by bringing in gently used donations or shopping for treasures. Two fabulous donors, in particular, allowed us to update our entire look with new glass shelving and display stands. Animal Humane's Marketing Team provided beautiful, fresh signage to complement the sales floor's improved layout and organization, and our Facilities Team built a new dressing room for our store. Our gratitude to our loyal patrons and supporters, who responded in a big way and helped us end the year on such a high note.

THRIFT SHOP

- Processed 426,080 items in FY2016.
- Rang up an average of 160 daily transactions.
- 64 Thrift volunteers contributed 9,132 hours in FY2016.
- Top 5 Best-Selling Items:
  - Clothing

Joining Forces in Support of Albuquerque's Pets and the People who Love Them

The ASPCA Albuquerque Community Partnership is a collaborative effort between Animal Humane New Mexico and the Albuquerque Animal Welfare Department (AWD) to provide resources for and improve the lives of owned and shelter pets. Made possible by a generous grant from the ASPCA, Partnership funding allows us to conduct Pet Health Fairs within targeted zip codes, provide spay/neuter vouchers to pet owners, hold large-scale joint adoption events, and provide critical support to low-income pet parents through our Safety Net program.

Our Partnership programs made a significant impact in Fiscal Year 2016, assisting 1,385 pets and their families while helping to find new homes for 261 pets. For the third year in a row, Partnership programs expanded access to high-quality veterinary care and support by hosting a total of five Pet Health Fairs, distributing vaccinations, microchips, spay/neuter vouchers, leashes, harnesses and pet food at no cost to attendees. With Partnership funding, Animal Humane began a new initiative, Safety Net, which helps individuals and families keep their pets in their homes by providing free behavioral consultations, fencing repairs, rental deposit assistance and subsidized medical care. The reception by the public has been overwhelmingly positive, with many sharing their stories of gratitude.

Humane Education — Lessons that Last a Lifetime

When schools let out in May 2016, our Education team wrapped up our fifth consecutive school year offering Learn Humane programs to New Mexico students. In those five years, our Learn Humane program — which brings character-focused humane education to Albuquerque and surrounding area schools — has grown by more than 220%! In Fiscal Year 2016, we reached 6,061 students and adults through 7,558 educational contact hours with programs that emphasize kindness and empathy.

Lessons in kindness continued through the summer months with Camp Humane, our week-long summer day camps where students ages 8-13 learn about animal care through fun activities and great animal interactions. Over our first two sessions completed in June, a total of 30 campers and 9 Junior Volunteer Counselors were immersed in all things Animal Humane, for a total of 1,265 educational contact hours. As these young Campers take what they learned about compassionate animal care, the responsibility that comes with raising pets, and respect for all back to their homes and schools, our entire community benefits.

Camp Humane

- Our Education Team presented to 69 Albuquerque Public Schools, impacting 43% of our city's school district.
- In addition to APS outreach, we presented to 5 Rio Rancho schools, 23 private schools, and 28 other educational organizations such as afterschool programs and Girl Scout Troops.
- A total of 136 individuals received 505 Pit Crew presentations, which emphasize the dangers of dogfighting and animal abuse.
- In 2016, Camp Humane reached maximum capacity for the first time in our 3-year history.
- 9 high school students ages 16-18 applied for positions as Junior Volunteer Counselors, the highest number of applications ever received.

A Pet's Journey Through Our Circle of Care

Over our 50+ year history, Animal Humane has developed a comprehensive array of programs designed to meet the needs of pets and pet owners throughout New Mexico. Provided by highly trained and compassionate staff, our services improve the lives of over 4,000 cats and dogs annually, in ways both simple and profound. From routine veterinary exams to life-saving medical care, a walk around our Campus to intensive behavioral modification training — each pet receives an individual treatment plan.

To honor the many paths that pets take through our shelter, we'd like to share the story of Gracie, a 5-year-old Labrador Retriever mix who was surrendered, treated for heartworm, fostered and adopted into a wonderful home. Her journey is certainly unique, yet it speaks of the skill and care behind everything we do at Animal Humane.
