2020 tribute album

the adventures of Jack

Family portrait in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Ben & Diana had no intention of adopting a pet when they visited Animal Humane ten years ago. Then, they met Jack. The Chihuahua mix was filled with a contagious joy.

"My wife fell in love with him immediately," says Ben.

Though the family initially called Albuquerque home, over the next 9 years of his life, Jack would go on many adventures with his beloved humans. Ben's military service took them around the world.

"Fortunately we've lived in some beautiful areas," says Ben "From Albuquerque to living by the ocean in Cuba — Jack tried swimming in it once, but he was not a fan — to the peaceful forests in Landstuhl, Germany."

No matter where they lived, Jack knew home is where the heart is.

The pup's love for his family was undeniable. "You could see it in the soulful expression in his eyes when he looked at us," explained Ben. "He truly enjoyed anything we did together."

And that infectious joy stuck with him to the very end. Sadly, Jack passed from cancer in early 2020, but the love he shared with his family remains.

"We wanted to give back a little to the shelter that gave us our beloved family member," says Ben. "And we wanted a physical reminder of our amazing and very much loved Jack."

Ben & Diana purchased a tribute brick in Animal Humane's Harbor Lights Park in memory of their constant companion. It will forever commemorate the love & adventures they shared with Jack.

Jack's tribute brick at Animal Humane's Main Campus in Albuquerque.

Mary's legacy of love lives on

Mary Brown loved animals.

"Animals took to her," said her husband Steve Brown. "We liked to say that they would adopt her."

The happy couple were together for 39 years. During this time, Mary & Steve brought in multiple stray cats, which "Ended up being our cats," according to Steve, and they adopted two dogs, Baby & Bella, from Animal Humane.

In addition to taking care of her own furry family members, Mary channeled her passion through volunteering at Animal Humane. She began as a volunteer at the Thrift Shop. Always willing to lend a helping hand, Mary was loved by all. Due to her success as an amazing volunteer and her passion for the animals, Mary became part of our Team.

Mary dedicated her life to serving the pets & people around her.

"Mary contributed so much, not only to animals, but to everyone," said Steve. "That's the kind of person she was."

Mary passed away in late 2020. In lieu of flowers the family asked that donations be made to Animal Humane New Mexico in Mary's memory.

Even in her passing, Mary continues to be a friend of animals — leaving a lasting legacy and saving the lives of New Mexico's cats and dogs in need.

the best gift of all

> "We gained a furry family member, Raven, through Animal Humane, and knowing that we could help them continue to turn animals and humans into families was the best way to ensure that our money and our personal values align."
> Mary Becker

Tiny Raven when she arrived at the shelter.

Last holiday season, Mary Becker and her family agreed the best present they could give to one another was giving back to their community.

"The humans in the family decided that we wanted the holiday to be meaningful," explained Mary. "Rather than exchanging gifts, we decided to make a family donation to an organization we believed in."

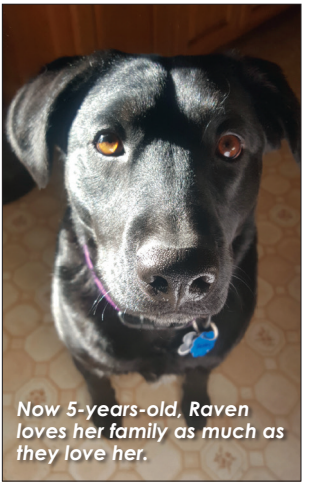
They chose an organization that changed their lives forever back in 2015 — Animal Humane. That was the year they adopted Raven.

Then a tiny Australian Shepherd puppy, Raven was transferred to Albuquerque from Gallup with her mother and four littermates. The neonate was actually born in the rural shelter. Upon arrival, Raven was placed into Foster Care until she was ready for a spay surgery and adoption.

When they met her, the Becker family fell in love with Raven's cute, fluffy coat and curious spirit.

"Five years ago, we brought home this beautiful puppy," said Mary. "Raven has been here when we've needed her most. She is a special girl and truly a part of our family."

To express their heartfelt thanks for their furry family member, they made a generous donation in honor of Raven. Though they chose to forgo presents, the Becker's believe they still received the best gifts of all — Raven & the joy of giving.



Now 5-years-old, Raven loves her family as much as they love her.

daughters honor their Pa on Father's Day

Misha & Pa snuggling in their chair.

Though Terri grew up without siblings, she says the day her parents adopted their cat, Misha, is the day she was no longer her Pa's only daughter.

"Pa & Misha quickly became best buds," says Terri. "They share a special bond."

Misha is always sleeping in Pa's lap. Their daily exercise includes "butterfly time" when Pa runs around the house waving a cat toy with a dangling butterfly and Misha chases him.

The orange Tabby cat also eagerly awaits their nightly bed-time routine, which consists of Pa checking Misha's bedroom for oogie boogie monsters before she goes to sleep in her cat bed.

On Father's Day, Terri wanted to give her dad a gift from both of his daughters. She chose to make a donation from herself and Misha to Animal Humane New Mexico in honor of Pa.

"I knew that this gift would help other pets find loving homes and help those pets build the same bonds with their people that my dad shares with Misha," says Terri. "Other cats and dogs deserve to have a father like we do."

It's rare to find Misha without Pa by her side.

"Misha and I just wanted to say thank you for taking care of us. We made this honorary donation on your behalf to help other daughters be proud of their fathers. Happy Father's Day Pa!"
