NEW MEXICO

irreplaceably unique, inspirationally motivating

Lessons From a Blind Dog

Life is so much sweeter when one takes time to smell the roses and see things with their heart instead of your eyes or ego, especially with a best friend by your side.

Just before Labor Day in 2014, Cindy and Marty Rivera were visiting Albuquerque from their home in southern New Mexico. They had extra time and decided to visit the dogs at Animal Humane. They had recently lost their beloved 9-year-old canine companion, Sammy, but had no intention of adopting.

They had seen a sweet older pup, Obi Juan, on Animal Humane's website and realized that, while still grieving for their recent loss, there was a special spark to the 9-year-old Shepard's friendly face that intrigued them. But they didn't realize how truly special the senior dog was. Obi's previous owner had surrendered him to Animal Humane because they both began losing their eyesight...making life in an otherwise loving home unsafe for both Obi Juan and his human. In spite of his failing eyesight and the stress of life in a shelter — even one as beautiful and peaceful as you have allowed Animal Humane to become — Obi Juan always had a bright smile on his face and a youthful bounce in his step.

We knew the right family would eventually fall for the special needs dog — and they did. When our Adoption Team brought Obi Juan out to meet the Riveras there was an instant connection. Their meet-and-greet ended much too soon and Cindy & Marty headed out for their next appointment.

Cindy recalls, "There was complete silence on the drive after we left Animal Humane... all we could think about was that special little man and how soon could we possibly get back to spend more time with him!"

Rushing back to Animal Humane's Main Campus after their final appointment of the day, Cindy and Marty were relieved to find that Obi Juan was still available. So they placed the patient pup on a 24-hour hold and hurried on their way, determined to be back before the hold expired.

After completing the adoption process they waited anxiously for our team to bring Obi out one last time... and upon entering the front door, his new dad got down on one knee. With an enthusiastic, "There's my boy!" from Marty, Obi rushed right into his arms.

It was a happy moment for the Riveras and Obi Juan, but it was just the beginning of their life-changing journey. Together, the Riveras and Obi Juan faced every obstacle that life placed in their path. In fact, Obi had many jobs at home, from taking his dad to get the morning paper to supervising any and all kitchen activities; but, if you had asked Obi what his most important job was, the Riveras are sure he would say, "taking care of mom" while she recovered from breast cancer. The next day Cindy and Marty were happy to return the favor. They nursed Obi through four bouts of pancreatitis, a potentially fatal inflammation of the pancreas. They slowed down when Obi's arthritic hip began to impact his movement. They took their beloved companion to see a veterinary ophthalmologist to address his encroaching blindness, giving him eye drops and preserving some of his vision for over 18 months before it became medically necessary to remove one of his eyes.

Not even losing his eye dulled Obi's spirits.

For almost two years, Obi lived with nothing but love and compassion as he napped on his couch, demanded his dinner exactly at 4 pm — either because he could tell time or because the dulcet tones of weatherman Mark Ronchetti signaled dinner time (as proud parents, the Riveras still maintain it was the former) — and charmed everyone he met. Sadly, in June of 2018 Cindy and Marty could tell their time with their “special little man” was drawing to an end. Moving became obviously painful for Obi

Juan and his appetite disappeared. After consulting with their veterinarian, the Riveras knew it was time to say goodbye.

But love doesn't leave with them when a pet crosses the Rainbow Bridge. Both the love they gave and the love they inspired in us remain. Cindy and Marty knew that their treasured friend would not want to keep that love to themselves. Even before Obi Juan's health started to decline, the Riveras prepaid the fees of several senior dogs available for adoption at Animal Humane. In the wake of his passing, they began giving regular gifts to Animal Humane's Community Partnership, a program which hosts Pet Health Fairs in high-need areas around Albuquerque.

The Riveras have also adopted two more dogs, a decision we are sure Obi approves of — both because he knows how impactful the love of a human is in the life of a dog, and because he wants his parents to continue receiving the joy and comfort only a pet can provide.

With every memorial or honor gift listed in this Tribute Album, you made countless stories like Obi Juan's possible.

Adopting a dog or cat is both a selfless and selfish act... you are saving their life and they are upgrading yours!

From rambunctious puppies and bottle baby kittens to senior pets helped at our Donor-subsidized Veterinary Clinic, thank you for making lives of people and pets richer in love and laughter.

A Note Obi Juan sent to us shortly after his adoption:

Dear Animal Humane:

I am sending you a new picture of me... I am all dressed up for your big party this weekend!! Even though I won't be able to make it to the festivities I wanted to say THANK YOU and let everyone there know how very GRATEFUL I am for the love and kindness shown to me while I was waiting for my new Mom and Dad to arrive. You guys are the BEST!!!

I also wanted to thank you for being so patient with my new mommy... she is a bit of a worry wart and very protective of me! No need to worry though... I am teaching her new things daily and almost have her trained just the way I want her!

My new daddy is retired and spends a lot of time with me. We are BFFs and he spoils me rotten... he was much easier to train than Mom!

I don't know if it is possible... but I would also like to let my former owner know that I am happy, healthy and safe! I know they loved me because they brought me to you guys!!

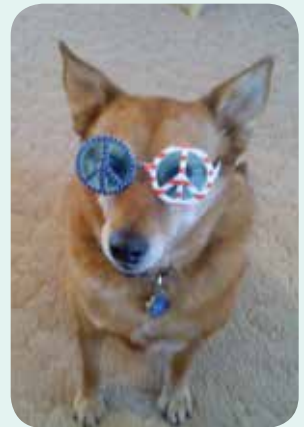

I hope you have a wonderful party and don't be surprised to see me on your doorstep again someday... just for a VISIT and to bring a donation to help other doggies / kitties!!

Fuzzy Hugs and Wet Kisses,

Obi Juan Rivera

We believe it!

paying tribute to those you love...

The following gifts made throughout 2018 not only furthered the legacy of compassion begun by the special pets and people in your life, they also made it possible for the homeless cats and dogs who found respite at Animal Humane to receive life-saving care and a second chance at a life full of love. Thank you, for paying tribute to those close to your heart.
